Upload Your First Recording

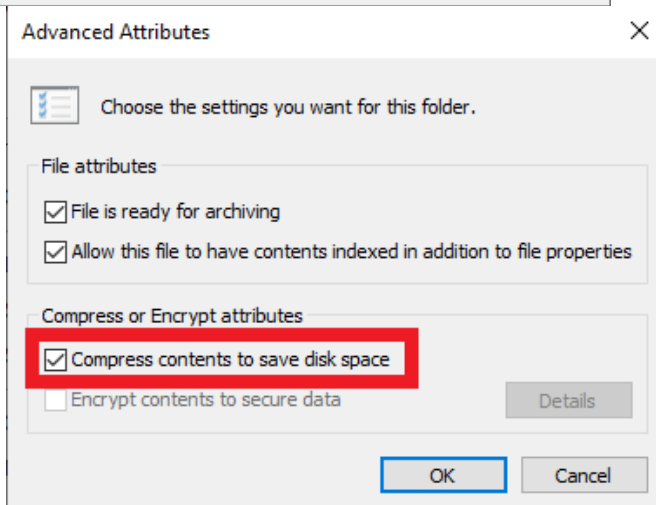

Step 1: Record your practice.

Recordings may be audio or video.

Step 2: Prepare your recordings. (Note: these instructions are for computers using Windows.)

Name recording files with dates and minutes (ex: 02.01.21 30min).

Compress each file (this makes uploading time faster): Go to the file properties. Choose “Advanced.” Choose “Compress.” Choose “OK.”

Step 3: Select the file you wish to upload.

Sign in to your youtube account. Choose “Your videos.”

Choose “Create.” Choose “Upload videos,” from the dropdown box.

Choose “Select Files,” then go to your video file’s location and select the video you wish to upload.

Type in the title for your video, using the format “Student-first-name Student-last-name Date-practiced Minutes-practiced.”

Submit Your Recordings

Step 1: Sign in.

Sign in to your youtube account.

Step 2: Select your practice plan playlist.

Choose “Your videos.”

Choose “Playlists.”

Click the link icon next to the playlist for the current quarter.

Highlight and copy the url in the address line.

Paste the url into the body of an email to your teacher.

Your teacher will let you know if they were able to view your playlist.

Once your teacher can view your playlist, they will be able to view all the subsequent files you add to the playlist throughout the remainder of the practice plan quarter.

Do not delete any practice plan videos or playlists from your youtube channel until the third week of December.
